

Draw the other half

Finish the pictures.

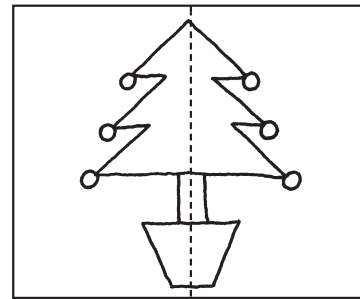

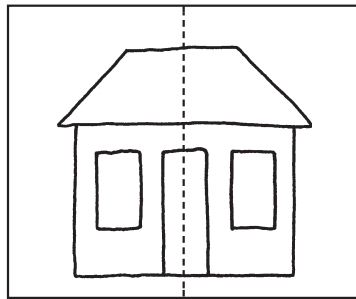

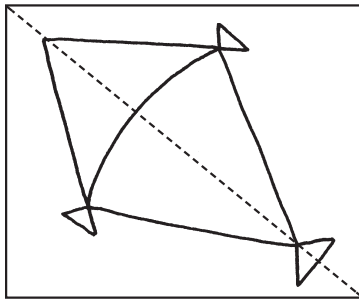

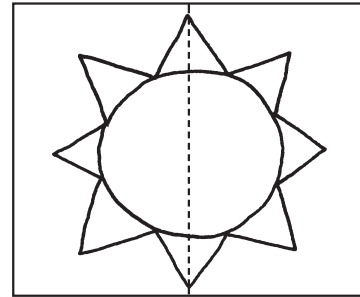

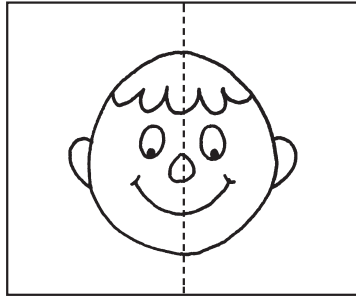

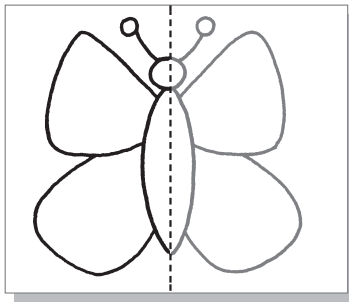

Make the two halves of the pegboards match. Color them in.

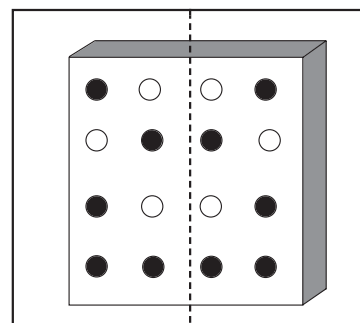

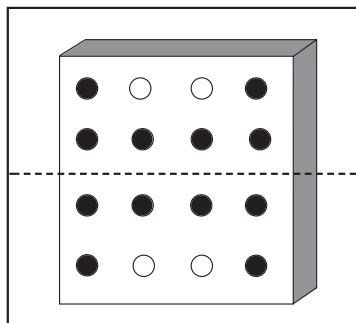

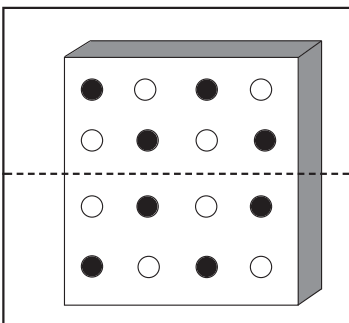

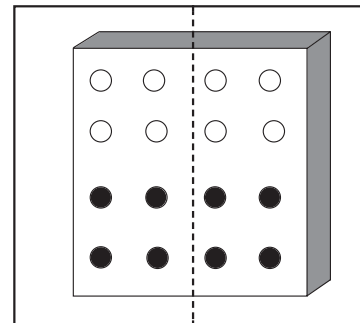

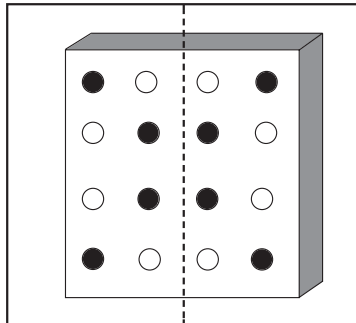

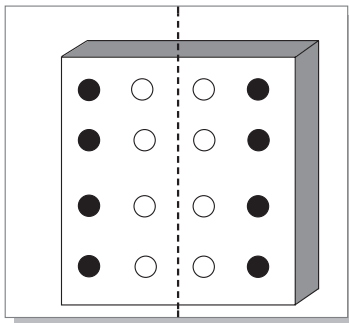

Draw the other half

Finish the pictures.

Make the two halves of the pegboards match. Color them in.

Placing a small mirror along the line of symmetry will enable children to see the complete image. For the second activity, it is important to understand that the unmarked half should be a mirror image of the marked half.